

HUNGRY OR THIRSTY?

After an afternoon of hiking or biking, there's no better spot to kick-back, relax and enjoy some great food and cold drinks. The Pub at Saddleback offers views as good as our food.

SADDLEBACK LOGO GEAR

Visit Base Camp Supply in the Base Lodge for logowear and custom merch to mark a memorable trip to Saddleback, plus snacks and drinks if you forgot to pack enough for your adventures.

SUNDAY BRUNCH

Perched at 3,620 feet, the NEST offers a Sunday Brunch unlike any other. Hike or ride the lift, and enjoy breathtaking views and incredible food.

HIKING AT SADDLEBACK KNOW BEFORE YOU GO...

This is a difficult trail. Know your group's ability. Start early, wear sturdy hiking shoes, pack extra water, and dress for variable weather as conditions can change quickly. *Important: Patrol rescue services are not available outside of lift operating hours. If you experience an emergency situation, call 911. ****

1. Leave no trace. Pack out whatever you pack in.
2. Dogs must be on leash above tree line. Clean up after your dog.
3. Stay on the marked trail, especially above tree line. The alpine zone is fragile and easily damaged by foot traffic.
4. Do not modify or build new rock piles. Existing piles are official trail markers
5. Camping is prohibited.
